THIS WEEKEND – 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time: This weekend, the focus of our Masses will be remembrance: for all those who have died and, in particular, those who have died as a result of war. And at our 10.30am Mass, we will celebrate a 'Mass for the Dead'.

NEXT WEEKEND – 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time: We all have so many talents, but how do we use them? To share our gifts, is a gift itself. And this includes our faith, but when did we last share our faith with someone who is not a Christian? Sometimes this is risky, but it is always worth it.

NOVEMBER – THE MONTH FOR THE HOLY SOULS:

Holy Souls envelopes: These are available in the Narthex and will be brought up at all our weekend Masses as part of the offertory procession with a Mass also celebrated for all those named.

Mass Intentions: Please let Fr Paul know if you would like him to celebrate Mass for anyone.

Thursday 12th November 12noon at Plymouth Cathedral. Clergy Requiem: Please pray for the repose of the souls of all the clergy who have served this diocese.

Saturday 14th November 12noon-2pm. Light a Candle: Everyone is invited to come and light a candle in memory of loved ones who have died and spend time in prayer and reflection. Why not invite people you know to come as well and 'light a candle in prayer'. Refreshments will also be available so that there will be the opportunity to stay a while and chat.
