7:00PM PARISH SUPPER AND QUIZ NIGHT – Bring some food and drink to share.

St Augustine is sometimes regarded as a bit of a killjoy, with rather an over emphasis on original sin, on the sins against chastity, and on the dangers of eternal damnation. But this rather negative view of our wonderful patron saint fails to do justice to a man of great depth and complexity, a man for whom God's grace, God's great love is the foundation of everything, a man for whom the building up of the community of the Church was an all consuming passion, and a man whose heart was constantly searching for and looking forward to the Kingdom of Heaven where everyone and everything will be totally transfixed with Love.

So come to our Parish Feast on the 28th!

JUSTICE AND PEACE -

"The parish Justice & Peace group meets every first Wednesday of the month. Its purpose is to focus on the Church's mission to work for justice in the world, not only in developing countries by supporting Cafod but also locally, confronting problems such as homelessness and the plight of refugees. The group plans activities and campaigns on behalf of the parish and works as a sub-committee of the Parish Pastoral Council. We would welcome new members. Please come along for a short meeting on Wed 3rd August to Cuthbert Mayne room at 5.30 pm and see if you agree with us that the most effective way of evangelising is by extending the hand of friendship to those in need. "
