FROM FATHER MICHAEL –

The Second Sunday of Easter. The Eighth Day of Easter. Divine Mercy Sunday

The man who most needed God's mercy was the Apostle Thomas. "Unless I see the holes that the nails made.... I refuse to believe." Eight days later Thomas gets his opportunity to do just that, to see those holes and to feel those holes. Through the action of God's mercy the man who "refused to believe" now becomes the man who exclaims "My Lord and my God". May this same Divine Mercy enable us to believe, not just with our heads, but in our hearts and in the way we lead our lives.

All for Jesus! all for Jesus!
This our song shall ever be;
For we have no hope, nor Saviour,
If we have not hope in thee.

All for Jesus! thou hast loved us;
All for Jesus! thou hast died;
All for Jesus! thou art with us;
All for Jesus, glorified

All for Jesus! at thine altar
Thou wilt give us sweet content;
There, dear Saviour, we receive thee
In thy holy sacrament.

All for Jesus! All for Jesus!
This the Church's song shall be;
Till, at last, the flock is gathered
One in love, and one in thee.
