FROM FATHER MICHAEL FORMATION, FORMATION, FORMATION

There is no treading water in the Christian life. We are either moving forward towards our heavenly Jerusalem, towards ever greater joy and love or alternatively we are on a downward slope towards complacency, sloth and bitterness. In order to become what God created us to be we need to be formed by the Holy Spirit, healed and transformed.

FORMATION OF FAMILIES - for First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion
9:45am Sunday 2nd October. Meeting in Cuthbert Mayne Room for Parents & Children
4:30pm Wednesday 5th October – Catechism classes for Children.

FORMATION FOR READING, PROCLAIMING AND UNDERSTANDING HOLY SCRIPTURE DURING MASS

7:30pm Wednesday 5th October

Meeting for all existing readers and for anybody interested in joining the reading team at some point in the future.

FORMATION IN THE CHRISTIAN LIFE. FORMATION IN PREPARATION FOR THE SACRAMENTS OF ADULT BAPTISM, CONFIRMATION AND HOLY COMMUNION.

7:30pm Thursdays – starting 20th October. This is open to all over the age of 16. Learning will be rooted in Holy Scripture, in the Liturgy of the Church, and in listening to one another. It is my hope that this can be a major source of spiritual growth for our parish.

LETTER TO FAITH LEADERS FROM KING CHARLES III

My Lord Archbishop, Dean, Ladies and Gentlemen. I am very grateful to have had this opportunity to meet you all, so soon after my Accession, in what are inevitably the saddest of circumstances for me and my Family. I have been touched by your kind words of condolence more than I can possibly say. They mean a great deal to me.

I also wanted, before all of you today, to confirm my determination to carry out my responsibilities as Sovereign of all communities around this country and the Commonwealth and in a way which reflects the world in which we now live.

I am a committed Anglican Christian, and at my Coronation I will take an oath relating to the settlement of the Church of England. At my Accession, I have already solemnly given – as has every Sovereign over the last 300 years – an Oath which pledges to maintain and preserve the Protestant faith in Scotland.

I have always thought of Britain as a ‘community of communities.’ That has led me to understand that the Sovereign has an additional duty – less formally recognized but to be no less diligently discharged. It is the duty to protect the diversity of our country, including by protecting the space for Faith itself and its practise through the religions, cultures, traditions and beliefs to which our hearts and minds direct us as individuals.

This diversity is not just enshrined in the laws of our country, it is enjoined by my own faith. As a member of the Church of England, my Christian beliefs have love at their very heart. By my most profound convictions, therefore – as well as by my position as Sovereign – I hold myself bound to respect those who follow other spiritual paths, as well as those who seek to live their lives in accordance with secular ideals.

The beliefs that flourish in, and contribute to, our richly diverse society differ. They, and our society, can only thrive through a clear collective commitment to those vital principles of freedom of conscience, generosity of spirit and care for others which are, to me, the essence of our nationhood. I am determined, as King, to preserve and promote those principles across all communities, and for all beliefs, with all my heart. This conviction was the foundation of everything my beloved mother did for our country, over her years as our Queen. It has been the foundation of my own work as Prince of Wales. It will continue to be the foundation of all my work as King.
